Subject: HEISSENBUTTEL and KOCH in Charleston, SC
I understand that this list is interested in swiss/german emigration to SC.

My husband's lines (see above) apparently came to Charleston, SC (Heissenbittel late 1840s and Koch mid 1860s from the state of Hannover in Germany. I understand that there were ships which came directly from Germany to Charleston during this time period but I cannot find any information about the passenger lists for these ships. Is anyone on this list working on lines which came from the Hannover area of Germany to Charleston at approximately this time. I would like to talk with you about what I have found and what I am looking for.

Welcome to The List. The Till and Hungerpiller families are original Orangeburgh Township emigrants. We should make the connection to your

Alabama line. Please give us a little information about yourself;
families

and time frame researching, snail-mail address, etc. Please address all

messages (and replies) to: nn105474@midnet.csd.sc.edu

Once again, welcome to the Orangeburgh list.
